THE WILDS COMMUNICATION

Please take note that The Wilds Homeowners' Association ("HOA") is a registered Article 21 Company and that our name and logo are our intellectual property. Any misuse of our name and/or logo may cause damage to the HOA's reputation.

It has been reported that several unofficial communication platforms have been created among our owners and residents alike that are making use of the HOA's name and logo to send various communications. No resident, owner, or group participant can be prohibited from participating, joining, or creating a private group. Yet should the use of the HOA's name and logo proceed and cause damage to our reputation, we will be necessitated to take further steps to protect the HOA.

Please be reminded that The Wilds's official communication platforms are Email, The Wilds Website, and the Golvent push communication system.

Any communication platform outside the ambit as noted above, is not recognised and managed by the HOA and the HOA will not be liable for any misguided, defamatorily or other postings or information shared on these unofficial and unmanaged platforms.

Yours Truly
